

Core Values Rating

Measure adherence to Company Values

Organization's culture is defined by its values. It is important for employees to adhere to the values defined by the organization, so that they fall in-line with the companies' vision and culture.

Some examples of core values for an organization

Transparent exchange of thoughts

Respect for each others

Balanced freedom with responsibility

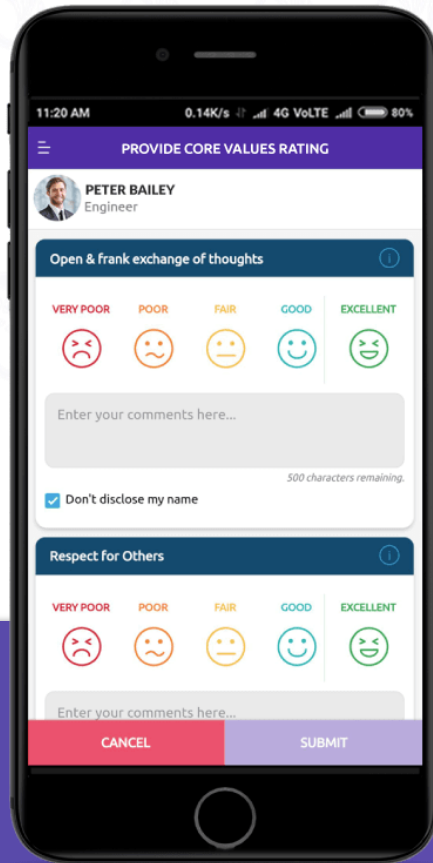

Inclusive learning

Every organization expects employees to demonstrate these values in their work with customers, vendors and colleagues

How do you measure this?

Co-Workers are the best way to provide this information
